Property Description

Lots in Turrialba starting at 21usd/m2 All the lots have water, electricity and are ready to build. Why should you consider buying a property in Turrialba? Turrialba is a small, laid-back town in Cartago province, about two hours from San José, where locals embrace the "Pura Vida" ethos - living simply, joyfully, and connected to the land. The town's rural charm, with its coffee and sugarcane fields, old adobe houses, and friendly street corners, fosters a tight-knit community vibe. It's less touristy than other spots, so you get an authentic slice of Costa Rican life, perfect for those who love a slower pace with deep cultural roots SPORT AND OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES: Turrialba is Central America's adventure-sport capital, and it's not just hype. - Whitewater rafting on the Pacuare and Pejibaye rivers is world-class, with rapids ranging from family-friendly Class II-III to adrenaline-pumping challenges.
