Property Description

Set on a 5,057 m² lot in the Río Santos area near Tamarindo, this home is located within a private gated community offering privacy and natural surroundings. Designed by a French architect, the house features a distinct European style with 3 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, a modern kitchen, and large windows with mountain views. The home includes A/C throughout, city water, high-speed Starlink internet, and a security camera system. The outdoor space includes an infinity pool, a rancho with panoramic valley views, and a garden with tropical vegetation. The property has two access points, an electric gate, and perimeter fencing for added privacy. Just 10 minutes from Tamarindo and nearby beaches, the location balances convenience and seclusion. With space available for future construction, it also offers potential for expansion or development. Contact us to schedule a visit or request more information today!
