Property Description

Casa Sol del Mar is a contemporary ocean-view retreat set in the gated community of Lomas del Mar in Guanacaste, Costa Rica. Just 30 minutes from Liberia International Airport and a short drive to Playas del Coco, Playa Hermosa, and Playa Potrero, the home offers an ideal base for full-time living, vacation use, or a rental investment. The famous Diamante Eco Adventure Park is only about 5 minutes away. Built on a spacious hillside lot, the single-level home is designed around an open-concept living, dining, and kitchen area that extends naturally to the covered terrace and infinity pool, all facing wide ocean and mountain views over Playa Blanca and the Pacific coast. The main house includes three bedrooms, each with its own ensuite bath, walk-in closet, and view. The primary suite also features a private outdoor shower for a uniquely Costa Rican experience. A separate one-bedroom casita adds flexibility for guests, family, or potential rental income.
