Property Description

Everything about this property speaks of quality—from its privileged location and breathtaking views to its meticulous design and world-class finishes. This three-bedroom residence sits on a 1.5-acre estate lot within one of the most desirable gated communities in Manuel Antonio. It stands among the finest listings in Manuel Antonio real estate, balancing natural serenity with exceptional accessibility to the area's most iconic attractions. Just minutes from Marina Pez Vela, Manuel Antonio National Park, and several pristine beaches, the property offers an immersive connection to nature without compromising convenience. A redundant water system (public supply plus rain catchment) and a remote-viewing security setup provide peace of mind, while a proven short-term rental program with a dedicated local team enhances its investment appeal.

Exceptional Layout & Features The main level welcomes you through a grand pivot door that opens into an expansive great room, seamlessly connecting the living, dining, and kitchen spaces.
