Property Description

Set high on Playa Flamingo's South Ridge, this 4,315 m² (1.07 acres) ocean-view homesite is positioned for a true statement build: a luxury residence designed around big Pacific vistas, sunsets, and year-round breezes—in one of the most consistently “blue-chip” hillside enclaves in Guanacaste. What makes this location different is not just the view—it's what surrounds you. Why Flamingo, Why Now: The Flamingo Marina has materially elevated the lifestyle and long-term desirability of this micro-market. The marina and Marina Village opened to the public on February 19, 2023, bringing a concentrated mix of upscale services and daily conveniences right into Flamingo—dining, boutique retail, and marina-side amenities that simply didn't exist here at this level a few years ago. For owners who use the coast the way it's meant to be used, the marina is also a real, functioning piece of infrastructure—built for serious boats and international travel patterns—positioning Flamingo as a legitimate yachting hub, not just a beach town with a dock.
