Property Description

Discover an exceptional homesite in El Tesoro, one of Tamarindo's most sought-after hillside communities. This 1,554 m² (0.38-acre) lot offers expansive panoramic views of the Pacific Ocean, along with the surrounding estuary and protected natural landscape, creating a truly serene and picturesque setting. The property features a spacious, flat building pad, ideal for designing a home that fully captures the ocean views, sunsets, and natural beauty of the area. Set within a gated community, this lot offers a rare balance of privacy and accessibility—just minutes from Tamarindo's beaches, surf, and dining, as well as a short drive to the local airport. The neighborhood is known for its tranquil, low-density environment, where wildlife and lush tropical surroundings are part of everyday life. Included in the sale are architectural plans for a modern 6-bedroom, 6-bathroom residence, thoughtfully designed to complement the lot and maximize its views—providing a strong foundation for a custom home or investment project.
