Property Description

Tucked away in the lush hills of Lagunas, this property invites you to experience the true essence of Costa Rica living. Surrounded by vibrant jungle and rich biodiversity, you'll wake up every day to the sounds of nature, with a beautiful glimpse of the ocean peeking through the greenery. This is a place where privacy, peace, and connection to nature come together effortlessly, your own sanctuary in the jungle. Despite its tranquil setting, you're only a short 15-minute drive from the surf, restaurants, and energy of Dominical Beach, giving you the perfect balance between seclusion and convenience. With water and electricity already available right across the street, the path to building your dream home or investment project is clear and accessible. Whether you envision a private retreat, a vacation home, or a boutique rental project, this property offers the setting and potential to bring that vision to life.
