Property Description

Set in the lush hills above Montezuma, this exceptional multi-home estate offers a rare combination of privacy, design, and natural beauty. Surrounded by tropical rainforest and enjoying expansive ocean and jungle views, the property has been thoughtfully designed as a refined retreat that functions equally well as a private family compound or a boutique hospitality investment. Positioned on a generous 18,772 m² lot, the estate provides a true sense of seclusion while remaining within easy reach of Montezuma's vibrant beach town and the surrounding coastline. The property features four fully furnished and equipped residences, each with its own unique character and connection to the natural surroundings. The main residence, Casa Anahata, offers approximately 372.1 m² of construction and includes two bedrooms, two bathrooms, expansive indoor and outdoor living areas, a central internal garden, pergola, and a separate office structure.
