Property Description

A rare opportunity to own a property that captures the true charm of Tamarindo while offering strong rental income potential. This income-generating property includes six fully equipped units, ideal for both short- and long-term rentals, along with shared amenities such as a swimming pool, common areas, and on-site laundry. Thoughtfully positioned to enhance the guest experience, the property boasts beautiful views and a calm, private setting—perfectly aligned with what today's travelers are looking for. A standout operational feature is the large potable water reserve, ensuring reliable service and uninterrupted guest stays—an important factor for maintaining high occupancy and satisfaction. An excellent option for investors seeking consistent returns in Tamarindo's growing market.
