Property Description

One of the most desired location in Matapalo. This ~2.5 acre this property in Matapalo is a beautiful and desirable location with a lot to offer. The fact that it borders 160 feet of prime Matapalo Beachfront is certainly a major selling point, as well as the lush tropical plants and multiple structures on the property. The main house with a kitchen, bedroom, and large living area provides a comfortable space for gathering and entertaining, while the open-air dining and living area is a great place to enjoy ocean breezes. The guest house and honeymoon cabin offer additional living space and privacy for guests, and the hammock rancho provides a relaxing place to take in the beautiful scenery. The fact that the property is off-grid and supplied with water from a nearby spring and solar power system is also a plus for those who are environmentally conscious or looking for a more self-sufficient lifestyle.
