Property Description

Located just 6 minutes from the growing town of Hojancha, this beautiful property offers the perfect balance between peaceful mountain living and easy access to Costa Rica's best Pacific beaches, including Sámará, Carrillo, Islita, and Coyote. Set in the lush hills of the Nicoya Peninsula, the property enjoys a fresh climate, constant breezes, and breathtaking panoramic views over rolling green mountains. This unique property features two well-built wooden homes, designed to last and set on solid concrete platforms and foundations: Main home: 73 m² Guest home: 48 m² Both homes combine durability with a warm, inviting design that blends naturally with the surroundings. Large windows allow for abundant natural light and open views of the landscape. The main house, positioned at the top of the property, offers a spacious terrace with stunning panoramic views, perfect for morning coffee or sunset relaxation.
