Property Description

Located in the heart of Playa Grande, one of Costa Rica's most renowned surf destinations, this unique collection of six fully furnished beach casitas offers an exceptional opportunity to own a high-performing hospitality property just minutes from the Pacific Ocean. Set within a peaceful and protected coastal environment—famous for its nesting Leatherback sea turtle—the property blends natural beauty with a flexible, income-generating layout ideal for group stays and retreat experiences. Designed to accommodate up to 24 guests, the property consists of six individual 2-bedroom casitas, each thoughtfully equipped for comfort and privacy. Every unit features air conditioning, a fully equipped kitchen, private dining area, covered patio, in-room safe, storage, and a welcoming living space with flat-screen TV. Memory foam cool gel mattresses elevate the guest experience, making each stay both restful and memorable.
