Property Description

Perched 633 feet above sea level, this exceptional 3.2-acre luxury estate enjoys protected panoramic ocean views, refreshing mountain breezes, and complete privacy within a secure gated community. Blending modern luxury with sustainable living, this is more than a home—it is a lifestyle. Designed for energy independence, the residence features a full solar power system with battery backup capable of powering the entire home, plus a dedicated EV charging station. Surrounding the home are beautifully landscaped tropical gardens, productive agricultural areas, a fully operational chicken coop, medicinal stingless bee hives producing natural honey, and 37 varieties of edible plants, fruit trees, herbs, and vegetables. The three-level residence has been thoughtfully designed to maximize ocean and mountain views throughout. The main level features an impressive open-concept living area, a gourmet kitchen with custom cabinetry, stainless steel appliances, and an oversized island seating up to ten guests.
