Property Description

Perched in the prestigious Monte la Cruz residential community above San Isidro de El General, this exceptional contemporary home combines luxury construction, breathtaking mountain scenery, and one of the Southern Zone's most desirable climates. Built in 2024 by one of Pérez Zeledón's most respected luxury home builders, the residence showcases quality craftsmanship, elegant finishes, and thoughtful design throughout. Situated at approximately 1,250 meters (just over 4,000 feet) above sea level, the home enjoys the perfect mountain climate—warm sunny days, refreshingly cool evenings, and spectacular panoramic views across the General Valley and surrounding mountains. Downtown San Isidro is just 20 minutes away, while the Pacific beaches of Dominical can be reached in about an hour, allowing you to enjoy the best of both mountain and coastal living. The home offers a spacious single-level floor plan with three bedrooms and three-and-a-half bathrooms, designed for both comfortable everyday living and effortless entertaining.
