Property Description

The second phase of this development is now available, offering 8 exclusive residential lots, including 3 lots with direct access to a private waterfall. This is a unique opportunity to own an ocean-view property with a natural waterfall, a rare combination in the Uvita area. Located at the top of the Uvita mountain range, these ocean and mountain view lots are just 15 minutes from downtown Uvita via a scenic drive along Bejuco Road, featuring panoramic coastal and mountain views. Each lot is easily accessible via a short private road from the public road. Water and electricity are already installed at the entrance of every lot, and both the internal driveway and designated building sites are prepared, allowing buyers to move forward immediately with the design and construction of their homes. WATER: Each lot have a creek concession and Guagara system connection available at the lot entrance.
