Property Description

Finca El Torito is a beautiful tract of land that is located less than a 5-minute drive from Samara and a couple of minutes walk from the eastern part of Samara Bay. Also really close from interesting points such as Carrillo beach. Located between the small towns of Matapalo and Torito, this beautiful portion of land ,has direct access to the main street through a neighboring street that leads to its very entrance. This provides easy access to the basic services such as electricity and water, of course it also guarantees ease of reaching to the place. The property features the typical geography of the zone , consists of an access from the bottom and within one or two minutes walk you ascend to the highest part or top of the little hill , from which at its highest point , you have a short partial view of the bay of Samara and the forests of the surrounding valley. It offers a unique scenic beauty of the surrounding mountain too .
