Property Description

Escape to your own personal retreat with this stunning brand new home situated on 3 acres of land, designed with modern sophistication and elegance. The home is designed to take in the breathtaking 360 degree view of the majestic mountains and the South Pacific white water coastline. This extraordinary home offers the perfect blend of privacy, constant mountain and ocean breezes throughout the day and convenient access to the town of Ojochal. This three bedroom plus den home features an open living concept that flows seamlessly, creating a welcoming and spacious environment. Soaring high ceilings, large windows that invite natural light and showcase the stunning views from every room. The living room, primary dining area, and kitchen are designed for entertaining and open up to the terrace and pool. The kitchen is a culinary dream with top-of-line appliances, storage pantry, plenty of cabinets, large island with seating and is the heart of the home.
